

Why should the banks be any different than any other telemarketer? Why should they be able to call when the others cannot. We entered into the Wisconsin NO-Call system for a reason, to eliminate telemarketers. That means ALL telemarketers! If we want to talk to different banks or anyone else for that matter, we will get ahold of them, not the other way around! We say "NO" to the banks being able to call us!